OPENING:

The President of ICCOBA NA, Mr, Sunday Uwumorongie opened the meeting by thanking members who were in attendance and called on the newest BOT member, Dr. Philip Osehobo to say the opening prayer. In his Presidential Report, he thanked The BOT members who attended the Atlanta Convention and to all for donating, noting that their generosity ensured the organizing and success of the convention. He also thanked the Local organizers and Fidel Castro Cole for hosting the convention. He laid out the focus of the meeting to be:

- Update on the Convention.
- The Financial Report of the Convention.
- The BOT Donations.
- Ways to Improve the BOT performance in the future.
- Review of Article 11 of ICCOBA NA Constitution.

FINANACIAL REPORT.

Mr. Morrison Osifo presented a combined report of the Treasurer and the Financial Secretary. He said that as of September 2022, the association had a total of $48, 704.41 in the bank account and that he had reconciled authorized spending of the association with the bank statement and certifies that our account was in good standing with no unusual activities and thank the Treasurer for a good job.

In presenting the Financial Secretary's report of the Atlanta Convention, Mr. Osifo, listed the earnings and expenditures of the convention and mentioned that the earnings came to a total of $22, 185.00 with the expenditure at $20, 975.00. He said with these figures, the Atlanta Convention was looking to make a profit of $1,210.00.

The Financial Secretary in ending his presentation, then went on to thank the BOT members for their generous donations to the association to the tune of over $37,000.00 since its inception. The President making more clarification about the BOT donations, said that Dr. Evans Imafidon, a BOT member from New York helped with a payment of $1000.00 to help with Bus Tour in Atlanta would actually bring the BOT contributions to over $38,000.00 and joined in thanking members.

Mr. Benson, in reacting to the financial report of the convention noted the potential confusion over the Ten Thousand Dollars advanced to the Atlanta Crew. He believes that money as reported indicates an earning in the convention. The President made the clarification that the money is spent money and that some of the miscellaneous spending is actually part of ten thousand and that the financial committee is actually waiting for the Atlanta crew, under the leadership of Mr. Fidel Cole to provide the detail break down already requested of him. This potential controversy ended with a general hope that Mr Cole's response will throw more light on the true earnings during the Convention.

2023 CONVENTION IN DALLAS:

The President announced to the BOT that the next convention will be held in Dallas in July and called on Mr. Osifo to brief the BOT members on the preparation efforts since he was the only one present from the Dallas area. Mr. Osifo informed the members that initial discussion amongst the three local members in Dallas. Mr Augustine Ekukpe. Dr. Ehigie Omorodion and himself has taken place and that the Hotel search was uppermost in the agenda of what to be done. He noted that the Dallas Branch is no longer vibrant, and that the convention will be used to recreate enthusiasm in the area.

ARTICLE 11, 2-3

The President drew members attention to Article 11 section 2 and 3 of ICCOBA Constitution that stipulates the composition and tenure of Trustee members with the aim of calling for an amendment to allow any willing member to serve for as long as they are willing. Mr. Clement Ajayi and Mr. Osifo agreed with a proposed constitution to allow anyone willing to serve indefinitely, so long as they are willing and meet all the criteria for service.

SCHOLARSHIP SCHEME

The President informed the BOT that, the General House during the convention awarded Scholarships to ICC students to the tune of 3.5 million Naira ($5,000.00). He said each student will get 500,000.00 naira being the cost of about a year's education in the school. Mr. Benson Asemota expressed concern and thinks the scholarship should cover the entire years in ICC. After a brief debate, the President promised to carry the proposal of expanding the scholarship to cover the entire educational career in ICC to the Executive Committee.

MATTERS ARISING

Mr. Benson Asemota informed the members of his desire for the Association to invite and make Prof. Ikhaguere a Keynote Speaker in the Convention in Dallas. He said His Autobiography had just been published and that he purchased 12 copies on behalf of the 1965 set and donated them to ICC library. The President thanked him for the gesture. He said that other notable personalities, Dr. Osagie Obayuwana and the Rev. Akubenzie, the Catholic Arc. Bishop of Benin diocese were also being considered.

CLOSING:

The President called on Mr Solomon Aifuwa to say the Closing prayer and the meeting ended after one hour and ten minutes.
