4. Mr. John Owie
5. Engineer Chris Igbinedion

President's Report

The president thanked the members for their attendance in today's meeting. The secretary general was unavoidably absent from this meeting. The focus of today's meeting according to the president would be.

- a. Conclusion of the financial report on the 2022 ICCOBA National Convention in Atlanta, and the end of year report for the fiscal year 2021.
- b. Update on the 2023 Dallas Convention from the local organizing committee
- c. Election of new national executive team members will be held at the Dallas convention.

Treasurer's Report

Mr. Osagie Eweka presented his report. According to him, as at today 5/7/2023 the book balance in the association's account was $54,770.95(Fifty-four thousand seven hundred and seventy dollars, ninety-five cents). He also used the opportunity to present his end of year report pertaining to the fiscal year 2021. Copies of his report were shared with the members of the executive team.

Financial Secretary's Report

Mr. Morrison Osifo presented his report. His report focused mainly on the last two months from March through May. In going through his report, he presented incomes and expenditures by the association. He reconciled the statement earlier presented by the treasurer and certified the report to be a true statement of the association's account. Moving on with his report, he reflected on the current financial culture prevailing in the association. He was happy with the direction things were moving. While there were still outstanding pledges to be redeemed from the last convention held in Atlanta, overall members have been responsive to his call for them to meet their financial obligation to the association.

He thanked the board of trustees for their exemplary role in setting the tone for everyone. No doubt their commitment has served as a model for other members to follow. He thanked everyone for rising to the occasion. Our association is headed in the right direction, he stated. At the conclusion of his report, Engineer Chris Igbinedion responded to a concern expressed by Mr. Osifo regarding unredeemed pledges. If these members have not redeemed their pledges by now, it is time to do away with those pledges he suggested. The president Mr. Uwumarogie commented on the discussion. According to him, these members continue to say they will fulfil their pledges he said. For now, let's keep them in our record, he surmised.

Welfare and Social Secretary's Report

Both officers were unavoidably absent at this meeting, as a result no report was presented.

Local Chapter Report

Boston

Mr. John Owie presented the Boston Chapter report. According to him, the Boston chapter holds their meeting on a quarterly basis. Their next meeting is due in the next two weeks. However, at their last meeting preparation for the Dallas convention was briefly discussed. He assured the president and his executive team that this event will be a major topic of discussion at their next meeting. All members will be encouraged to make reservations for the convention, and strongly participate in the event to support the association.

California

Engineer Chris Igbinedion represented the California chapter. He reminded members again that California was not a formal functioning chapter in the true sense of the word. However, there were a few individual members who took it upon themselves to become dues paying members of the association. He recognized Dr. Peter Arasonwan as such and thanked him for becoming a new member of the board of trustees who will also be attending the convention in Dallas.

Engineer Igbinedion thanked the president for the recognition he has always accorded him at these meetings to speak on issues concerning the alma mater. Mr. Uwumarogie responded and thanked Engineer Chris Igbinedion for his participation and suggestions. We continue to count on you to be a building block for a viable chapter in the West Coast sometime soon, he stated.

Matters Arising

Dallas Local Organizing Update

The chairman of the Dallas Local Organizing committee was absent at this meeting. Mr. Morrison Osifo, a member of the Dallas chapter, provided a quick update on their state of preparedness. According to him, the raffle tickets for the convention were ready and in the process of being shipped to the various chapters. He also expressed some concerns about participation from other members in their chapter. He used the briefing to put the national executive team members on notice for their assistance in organizing the event if the need arose as we draw closer to the convention. In concluding his report, the president Mr. Uwumarogie used the opportunity to call on members to buy advertisement page on the convention brochure. suggestions and ideas were put forward by those attending the meeting on ways and means to secure the maximum number of advertisements for the brochure. These ideas will be adopted stated the president. Class sets leaders will be contacted to reach their members to encourage participation in all areas of the convention.

Joys and Concerns

- A. Mr. Osagie Eweka called on the need to get a headcount of those who have registered and made reservation with the hotel to avoid being penalized for failing to meet the room allocation to the association.
- B. Members congratulated Mr. John Owie on the beautiful birthday celebration in honor of his wife.

Adjournment

The motion to adjourn the meeting was moved by Mr. John Owie and seconded by Engineer Chris Igbinedion. Closing prayer was offered by Mr. Osagie Eweka.
