2022 5th ICCOBA NA Convention
Atlanta Georgia
August 12, 2022 – August 14, 2022
General Meeting
President Address to the House

Good morning!!! This is the first ICCOBA North America convention since 2019. It has been three years. COVID 19 and its various strands created a new normal in our global society that we are still navigating. Its consequences changed our lives and reminded us of what matters most in life, family, and friends. We are grateful to God for His goodness and mercies. We thank Him for our lives and that of our families and friends. All glory to God, who through his mighty power brought us here today.

Distinguish members of the executive, board of trustees, guests, the worldwide president, members of the various chapters of ICCOBA from Nigeria, members of ICCOBA North America, and gentlemen, it is with great delight and privilege that I welcome you all to this 2022 5th ICCOBA North America Convention general meeting in Atlanta, Georgia USA. We are very grateful to have all of you here today.

The executive members of the ICCOBA North America have put in the time and effort in collaboration with members of ICCOBA in Atlanta and Southeast to host this convention. My heartfelt thanks to our honorable members in this area, the local organizing committee, and the chairman Mr. Fidel Castro Cole and co-chair Mr. Osasuyi Idubor. My special thanks to the members of the board of trustees for their unwavering financial support of ICCOBA North America. You have truly become the foundational resource of this noble association. Thank you to all our members who dutifully paid their annual dues. The executive and I appreciate your sacrifice. We are working hard and assure you that all monies received have been and will continue to be judiciously utilized for the advancement of the association vision, mission, goals, and objectives.

Our executive team was elected in 2019. For the past three year we have worked hard to achieve our stated goals. Our focus was to improve four specific areas of our association. They are 1) Growing membership 2) Putting our finances in order and developing alternative methods of fundraising 3) Examining convention successes and failures through examining and adhering to line items reporting and 4) Revising, modifying, or amending the constitution. Let's examine current state of the association based on those four areas.

Growing membership

Thanks to our welfare officer Mr. Adam Bello-Osagie our WhatsApp platform was the first initiative implemented the first month of this executive team in August 2019. Currently, we have a total of 133 members on the platform. The consensus from executive deliberation on this matter was that it will facilitate the transition of platform members into registered and dues paying ICCOBA NA membership. We are still hoping and enthusiastic of the outcome.

 Since 2019 we have increased registered membership by 8 (Umah Okpara, Philip Osehobo, Solomon Okogun, Hope Uwumarogie, Daniel Okhilua, Peter Idemudia, Ehi Arebamen and Emmanuel Akhile). We have about 37 active members that have paid their membership dues up to 2021, another 13 members paid till 2020, and about 20 members that have paid in one form or the other for a total of 69 registered members. Presently, the vice president Dr. Presley Omoruyi is working with the worldwide president and his executive team to create worldwide data base for all iccobites around the world. So, the outlook for ICCOBA NA to increase its registered membership is very promising.

Putting our finances in order

When this executive team came into office, the association had a total account balance of $3,636.00 as of July 31st, 2019. After several deliberations and insightful discussions on alternative funding source and methods of revenue collection, the executive team approved the creation of the board of trustee and the Zelle account. Thanks to the board of trustee and our diligent dues paying members we have raised up to $60,000,00. We currently have a bank account statement balance of $45,834.30 after some expenditures towards the convention and other annual reoccurring expenses. Thanks to our creative treasurer Mr. Osagie Eweka, we instituted the transaction processes in which all debits from the account must go through the vendors. Then, we encouraged all credits into the account (BOT donation and dues payments by members or other receivables go directly into the account through Zelle and direct deposit. These processes allowed for the line-item identification and analysis of bank statement credits and debits. Finally, thanks to our able financial secretary Mr. Morrison Osifo, his tenacity and cordiality in reminding members to do the needful and meet their respective obligations to the association helped in improving the association finances.

Examining Conventions successes and failures

To improve efficiency, effectiveness and responsiveness with our convention, the executive team created a budget comparison and analysis chart that dive into line-item cost and benefit from conventions since 2016. The idea is to discover areas of improvement. We needed to either reduce or increase expenditures to be more responsive to the needs of our members and guests during the convention; and more specially to look at profit and lost. The chart is in the exhibit section.

Revising, modifying, or amending the constitution

Again, after several deliberations and insightful discussions on the constitution, the executive team recommended that the constitution review committee (CRC) be activated. The committee was inaugurated on November 22, 2020. It comprised of Mr. Andrew Aideyan, Major Cletus Obahor and Barr. Ben Omorogbe. The committee started its official work on December 6, 2020. Its members selected Barr. Ben Omorogbe as their chairperson. Thanks to all three members leadership the constitution was revised and submitted to the executive team for a review. The executive reviewed and made additional recommendations which were incorporated by the CRC. The final copy was submitted to the executive. Following the approval, it was submitted to the board of trustee for review and recommendations. The final copy of the revised constitution was presented to the house during a Zoom general meeting on April 24, 2022. It was unanimously approved at that meeting. However, it was understood that true final vote of approval will be conducted during our 2022 convention in Atlanta, Georgia. Again, thanks to the constitution review committee members for their hard work and commitment to the association.

Other Programs and Activities approved by the executive team

1. Scholarship programs for students in our alma mater and children of our members in the United States
2. Current ICC students' participation in Edo State intercollegiate soccer program

Continuation of Projects from outgoing Executive

1. Implementing the increase of monthly dues from $15.00 to $20.00
2. Collecting contributions to build ICCOBA House in Benin City
- Total donations as of August 2022 is N8,248,040.00

Others

1. Logos (the difference between ICCOBA and ICC logos)

This convention is to celebrate all of you our members, your wives, children, and guests. Please relax, make yourself comfortable and enjoy your experiences. Thank you for all you have done to support our alma mater. We pray that during the fundraising you will donate generously to our scholarship program which is designed to support the current students in our alma mater and the children of our members in North America.

We hope that this convention will bring into focus our collective responsibility. Our collective wisdom and knowledge are desperately in demand in this critical era. As Immaculate Conception College graduates, we must continue to be good role models for current students and future generation. We must take the mantle of mentors and share our expertise. It is imperative that we become advocates for leadership that truly believe in education. Finally, we have no choice but to be passionate supporters of scholarship programs for the advancement of current and future students.

Once again, thank you for being here today and welcome to Atlanta, Georgia. I pray that you enjoy your stay and that your experiences in Atlanta, Georgia are pleasurable. Finally, thank you to our host, especially honorable Fidel Castro Cole and honorable Osasuyi Idubor, for your determination to make this weekend possible and enjoyable.

Thank you
