

President's Message

Dear Fellow ICCOBITES,

On behalf of the Executives of the Immaculate Conception College Old Boys Association of North America (ICCOBA-NA), I extend a warm and hearty welcome to you.

It is my distinct honor to serve as President of ICCOBA-NA at this critical moment in the history of the association. Over the years, our association has stood as a beacon of excellence in alumni engagement. Today, we carry forward that legacy with unwavering commitment and dedication. Our mission is simple yet profound. The ICCOBA-NA exists to establish and sustain fraternal relationship among registered members and to provide a platform for alumni to connect, share experiences, and support each other in personal and professional endeavors.

Your membership helps us in our desire to strategically position the alumni to sustain the goals of the Immaculate Conception College and to solidify ICCOBA-NA as one of the greatest and most forward-thinking old boys' associations in the world. Your active involvement also enables the association to continue to strive to be an advocate and dependable source of support required to ensure that the Immaculate Conception College continues the tradition of being a beacon of hope, scholarship, and educating the next generation of leaders.

On this website you will learn more about the mission, vision, and activities of ICCOBA-NA. Our strength lies in your receptivity and willingness to embrace and share innovative ideas and thoughts and in our collective commitment to maintaining an environment that values, respects, and elevates everyone.

Once again, welcome to ICCOBA-NA. Together, we will shape the future and advance the mission of this esteemed association.

For more information, please feel free to contact me at 317-519-0520 or at aagho@aol.com. I look forward to hearing from you!

Best regards,

Austin O. Agho, Ph.D.